In the correctional setting, nurses must be able to screen inmates for a broad range of things, including need for urgent dental or mental health care and preventive care. However, screening of an inmate in segregation, for example, is very different from screening to decide whether an inmate can be assigned to work in the kitchen.

Screening, Sick Call and Triage

An exemplar of such work is the Correctional Nursing: Scope and Standards, Second Edition (ANA/Corrections Nursing, 2013) which articulates specialty exemplars for the nine provisions of the Code of Ethics.
